Disconnect the power cord A from the electrical outlet AND from your existing modem.

Disconnect the coax cable B from the existing modem and connect it to the cable port on your new equipment.

Disconnect the Ethernet line C from the existing modem and plug it into the Ethernet port on your new modem.

Connect the NEW POWER CORD D to the electrical outlet and your new modem.

After steps 1-4 are complete, power up your modem.

Once lights are on modem, launch browser and review the acceptable use policy and follow any instructions.

Restart modem and start surfing!